THE INSIDE SCOOP FOR THE GAL ABOUT TOWN

ARE YOU IN THE SCULPT SOCIETY?

You're the kind of girl who owns more pilates pants than jeans.

Mingle with your own kind when L.A. sensation Bandier pops up in Houston for the very first time. The cult-followed athletic concept is an emporium of the very best sweats, tanks, bras, leggings and everything else you need to look stylish at the studio. Hit the pop-up TOMORROW, Wed, Jan, 15, in a private Southside Place home and browse merch like the exclusive Golden Goose x Bandier sneaker collaboration. Feeling lucky? In2Shop saved a few spots for Tidbits readers in the fitness classes that take place in between shopping. Details are below.

A stretch in the right direction.
